About me:

My name is Ana and I am an English teacher. I have an outstanding educational training regarding the process of learning-teaching English as a foreign language. I have taught English for more than 18 years with an exceptional methodology, characterized for being dynamic and predominantly, a speaking-based content procedure. Students working with me have achieved B2 and C1 level within the European framework of English as a foreign language. I consider myself a kind, problem-solving, and highly creative person. Using assertive language is my top priority to promote a friendly work environment as well as team work.
